Copper Grog Mug

Holding 375ml, it's much larger than our traditional rum measure (right). Perfect for the daily ration of Grog perhaps?

2928 Copper Measure, 375ml.

Naval Rum Measure - Half Gill

The Royal Naval rum was measured in half-gill tots and variously diluted, often into a two-gill (half-pint) measure. Our measures are made in the time-honoured way - from skilfully hand-beaten brass, copper-plated, polished, then lined with silver to neutralise taste. The bases are etched with the prestigious HMS logo. One supplied. Height 5cm.

Drink all the Whisky in the World...

Now that's a serious challenge. But not quite as reckless as it first appears. You see, the world in question is this strikingly handsome globe-shaped decanter. It's handblown from borosilicate glass, and includes a blown-glass ship in the centre. Easily removed for pouring and passing around (it's wonderfully satisfying to hold), the decanter has a glass ball stopper with an airtight seal - in case you don't finish the contents in one sitting. Presented in a smart gift box. Capacity 75cl.

Plimsoll Line Glass

Samuel Plimsoll, MP, is remembered for his safe load waterline mark, introduced to prevent unscrupulous shipping owners from overloading their ships and so taking excessive risks with the lives of their crews. It is now found on all commercial ships worldwide. We have commissioned an attractive whisky glass, handsomely etched with his image and the Plimsoll line, in this case used to mark the "safe load" for a generous helping of spirit. Capacity 160ml to line.
