

Train in a Bottle Decanter

New!

The traditional ship-in-a-bottle, re-imagined for the railway enthusiast; a 1930s A4 Class 'Mallard' style locomotive has been blown from glass inside this elegant decanter. Your favourite tipple is kept fresh with a choice of glass or cork stopper, and a wooden display stand presents the decanter as the focal point of your drinks cabinet. Measures 26x12x9cm and holds 75cl. Contents not included. Supplied gift boxed.

New!* 2811 Train in a Bottle Decanter.

Glass Ship in Bottle Decanter

Yo ho ho and a bottle of rum, whisky, vodka, or whatever else splices your mainbrace. The classic ship in a bottle conundrum is given an update with this handmade glass decanter to display your favourite tipple. The decanter holds a full 75cl bottle and comes complete with cork and glass stopper for authenticity, and a wood display stand. Measures 27cm long.

2814 Ship in a Bottle Decanter.

Whose round is it?

What was it they used to say in the trenches? If it's got your number on it... Happily this 50 calibre shell has been expertly crafted into a novel yet highly efficient bottle opener. The perfect excuse for cracking open a bottle or two of 'Old Sledgehammer' or whatever tickles your palate. A gift guaranteed to hit the target every time. Length 14cm.

2813 50 Calibre Bullet Bottle Opener.

